WHO WE ARE

The Zeta Amicae is a group of women, who do not possess a four-year degree, organized as an auxiliary for the purpose of lending assistance, supporting, and upholding in every way possible the activities, objectives, and ideals of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated.

MISSION STATEMENT

Empowering Amicae to be Leaders and Servants in their Communities Through Education, Communication, Evaluating, Elevating and Re-Branding.

VISION STATEMENT

To make a difference in the Lives of Others through Service, Amicae and Zetas, Hand in Hand Working Together, A cultivation of "Friendships for Life."

HISTORY

In 1948, a group of women were organized and chose the Latin name "Amicae" (friends).

The Amicae have rendered valuable services to the sorority and their respective communities.

These groups known today as the Zeta Amicae are located and sponsored in areas where there are active chapters of Zeta Phi Sorority, Inc.
